CAUSE

Special Condition #19: You shall abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and shall submit to urinalysis testing, as directed by the supervising probation officer.

Supporting Evidence Violation #1: Reanna Howard is considered in violation of her probation in the Eastern District of Washington by her use of marijuana on/or about February 16, 2006.

Reanna Howard submitted a urinalysis on February 16, 2006, which confirmed positive by Scientific Testing Laboratories. Ms. Howard advised she ingested marijuana stems provided by her boyfriend. Ms. Howard indicated she ingested marijuana to help relieve symptoms of nausea as a result of pregnancy.

Ms. Howard was reprimanded by probation for her use of marijuana and reminded that use of controlled substances, including marijuana, whether by smoking or orally ingestion, is prohibited.

Also, during the last supervised release hearing on January 13, 2006, Ms. Howard was reminded to pay her remaining electronic monitoring fees no later than January 30, 2006. As of February 24, 2006, she has not paid the fees as previously directed. Ms. Howard reports she experienced some mail problems but she will make sure this matter is fully paid by February 28, 2006.
